LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL

CAMBRIDGE CITY, INDIANA

Cambridge City

School

These buildings represent a span of almost 100 years during which time hundreds of students walked across the thresholds, down the halls, and into the classroom.

Many of those whose voices echoed through the halls have risen to high positions, some have gone to distant places, others have remained and contributed much to the local community.

With the passing of time, buildings become inadequate and crumble with age. They are replaced, as was the three-story structure to the left which housed all twelve grades.

In 1922 the new high school and junior high building to the left was completed. The student body chose to call it Lincoln High School.

Other factors besides time take their toll. Disaster in the guise of fire struck in the early hours of February 25, 1955. The Lincoln building soon became a memory. A new Lincoln soon replaces the charred ruins and opened its doors in the fall of 1957.

A WALK THROUGH NEW LINCOLN

As we walk through new Lincoln, we meet many students going through their daily routine of study and being guided in their education by our well-qualified teaching staff. We see the student body engaging in and enjoying the many activities offered at Lincoln High School.

Administration and Faculty

Stuart Shipman
Superintendent

Lloyd Frazer
Principal

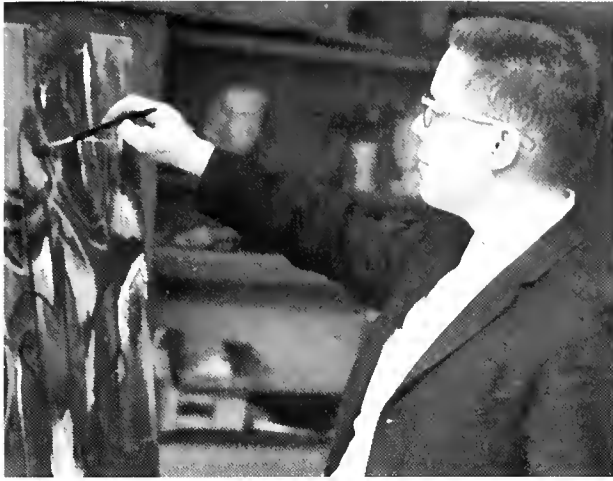

Mr. Shipman has been interested in employing well-qualified teachers, supplying fine facilities and equipment in all the buildings, and promoting and developing the highest standards for our entire school system. His forward look has been responsible for the accelerated program, begun in 1958.

When we entered Lincoln four years ago to begin our walk through high school, Mr. Frazer assumed the responsibility for directing our steps. He has assisted us in planning our curricula, scheduling classes, and counseling with us about personal problems, future plans, and our activities.

Last September, we the class of 1961, found ourselves engaged in a new experience, that of sharing the responsibility of publishing the first yearbook in 37 years. Although we knew very little when we began, we all learned together through much hard work. We were guided in our endeavor by our competent sponsor, Mr. Larry Shinn. We have spent many long hours striving to reach perfection on our publication.

SENIORS - LAST WALK TOGETHER

SPIRITED,

SAGACIOUS,

SENTIMENTAL

Senior Play

The last walk together climaxes twelve years of studying and learning spent in grade schools, Parkway, and Lincoln High School. Before taking the last step, let's reminisce a bit. The highlights of our high school days have been belonging to Y-Teens, G.A.A., Hi-Y, the junior play - - "Class Ring," the prom - - "Blue Hawaii," homecoming dance, wearing yellow cords, sitting in the front row at assembly programs, senior pictures, yearbook staff meetings, the senior play - - "More Room for Love," and the ultimate climax, graduation.

JUNIORS - JOURNEY THROUGH LINCOLN

PROM, PLAY, PROFITS, PRACTICE

The journey through Lincoln High School becomes complicated in the junior year with the prom, concessions at all sports events, endless practice for the play, athletics, band, and choral groups. Chemistry, advanced algebra, American literature, and shorthand demand longer hours of study. There is still a little time for fun and friendships.

FRESHMEN

FIRST STEPS THROUGH LINCOLN

Frightened, friendly, and forgetful Freshmen found their first steps in Lincoln some times hurried to arrive in class on time, and other times, hesitant, not knowing which direction to go. New subjects such as algebra, biology, and foreign language brought challenge and study. Participation in many new activities added to their busy schedule.

ACCELERATED STUDENTS

Before Sputnik the Cambridge City-Jackson Township Schools initiated a program for the "academically talented" at one grade level. Throughout the school year of 1957-1958, a thorough study was made of eighty-four students in the seventh grade. It was decided to offer the high school subjects, algebra and Latin I, to talented eighth grade students as a challenge to their ability and to enrich their academic growth.

In the fall of 1958, sixteen eighth graders enrolled in algebra and Latin I with the high school students. They took all other eighth grade subjects except arithmetic and English.

Six students were enrolled in the program during the year 1959-1960. The reduced number was due in part to closer screening and to the fact that the class did not have students with high potential. Two recommended students did not enroll and one moved away.

It is evident from the studies made the past two years that the original belief that these accelerates can excel was justified. The program will cover a period of five years. The current year finds eighteen eighth graders enrolled in the project.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is a national organization emphasizing scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

It is an educational organization and, as such, suggests that its members should plan to attend educational institutions beyond the high school level. This planning leads to proper scheduling in the high school; that is five or six classes per day, four of which will be solids. Students who actively participate in class, have assignments completed promptly, and seek additional work are the most promising candidates.

The students who handle responsible positions in school activities, who can work well with teachers and sponsors, and who merit the respect of classmates are especially worthy of consideration.

The qualification of scholarship is fixed and the easiest to determine; therefore, all sophomore, junior, and senior students are automatically considered for membership when they are eligible for the semester "A" or "B" honor roll.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Lincoln High School was founded in 1945. The purpose of the Student Council is to give its members experience in democratic living. It doesn't seek to direct or to control the school; instead it is intended as an instrument of expression for the student body. The Student Council is representative of all of the pupils in the high school. The membership consists of the class presidents and one boy and one girl from each class. Officers elected by the council are: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Activities of the council have been printing the student handbook, sponsoring the Homecoming parade, selecting assembly programs and ushering at special events.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Lincoln high school boys are members of the Milton FFA Chapter as a result of their taking the vocational agriculture course at Milton school through a cooperative arrangement started 1959-1960. Lincoln high school provides driver education instruction to Milton students.

Lincoln FFA members have participated in the State FFA Convention at Purdue University, the FFA Polio Corn Lift in which $316.95 was raised for the Polio Fund. They have helped in the operation of the 62 acre FFA farm which provides the major portion of the income for carrying on the chapter's activities.

CLASS RING

In the junior year the class produced the play, Class Ring, in November. It was a rollicking comedy, centering about an attractive pair of teenagers who exchanged classrings and decided to "go steady." During the play many problems arose when Mother was called out of town, and Father took over with his labor-saving schedule. Tobey received the leading role in the school play which complicated her romance, but with understanding the author brought the play to a fitting climax.

MORE ROOM FOR LOVE

The senior class presented the three act comedy, More Room for Love, on November 3 and 4 in the Parkway Auditorium. The theme of the play was the application of home therapy to give the parents in the Murlock family sublimated outlets for their suppressed hostilities. It all began with the older daughter Dale's using her family as guinea pigs for a college paper. A young professor in whom she was romantically interested further complicated the situation when he published some of the findings from the study. With the help of her younger sister Kitty and her ex-boyfriend who had become interested in Kitty, the plot evolved itself into a happy and purposeful conclusion.

REGIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

The battle of the Cats - the Wampus Cats and the Muncie Central Bearcats. The Wampus Cats fought courageously but didn't make as many baskets as the Bearcats. The final score was 56-33.

AUTOGRAPHS

Through Lincoln's cherished halls and classrooms, we have walked and talked, laughed and sighed, and studied and learned. The doors will soon close behind us, but the memories of friendships and pleasant associations will linger. Fortified by knowledge and words of wisdom and advice, we go forth to meet the challenge of tomorrow.

"And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;"
